In case you missed today's Industry Call, a recording has been made available.

Alaska CHARR is partnering with the Alcohol & Marijuana Control Office (AMCO) to provide a series of live webinar trainings for alcohol licensees. The first session was during today's industry call, featuring guest speaker Carrie Craig, AMCO's Records & Licensing Supervisor. Carrie provided a presentation and answered questions about the new form for this year's liquor license renewals which were mailed out to all renewing licensees earlier this month.
